01 · Inclusion and diversity, Teaching methodology

Mixed Ability Classroom

Practical ways to teach a class in which every learner starts from a different place.

For: Teachers of any subject and level, special-needs and support staff, and school leaders who want inclusive practice across the school.

Your English: English at A2 or above

www.erasmus-croatia.com/courses/mixed-ability-classroom

Participants will be able to:

- work with more confidence in mixed-ability classrooms
- use a range of classroom management techniques suited to mixed groups
- differentiate tasks and scaffold learning successfully
- understand dyslexia and ADHD and adapt activities for these learners
- use practical games and activities in their own professional context

02 · Inclusion and diversity, Teaching methodology

Motivation in the 21st-Century Classroom

How to win and keep the attention of learners who grew up online.

For: Primary and secondary teachers of any subject, and adult educators.

Your English: English at A2 or above

www.erasmus-croatia.com/courses/motivation-21st-century-classroom

Participants will be able to:

- become better storytellers in the classroom
- use internet tools and learning platforms with a clear purpose
- engage all learners in a lesson, not only the most confident
- help learners reach their full potential

03 · Digital transformation, Teaching methodology

Build Your Own Classroom Tools with AI

Describe the tool your class needs, build it with AI, and take it home working.

For: Teachers of any subject and level, librarians and ICT coordinators who want to make their own digital materials. No programming experience is needed.

Your English: English at B1 or above (B2 recommended)

Trainer: Josip Sobin

You bring: A laptop (a tablet or phone is not enough) and a paid Claude Pro or ChatGPT Plus account, active during the course week. Free plans have usage limits that a week of building reaches quickly.

www.erasmus-croatia.com/courses/build-classroom-tools-with-ai

Participants will be able to:

- describe a classroom tool clearly enough for an AI to build it
- build, test and improve quizzes, games, interactive worksheets and simple web pages with AI, without writing code by hand
- publish a tool on its own web address and share it with learners and colleagues
- check AI-made tools for errors, accessibility and age-appropriate content before learners use them
- check whether a tool collects learners' data and fits GDPR and school rules

Student-Centred Classroom

Lessons built around what learners do, with the teacher as guide.

For: Teachers of any subject and level, from primary school to adult education.

Your English: English at A2 or above

www.erasmus-croatia.com/courses/student-centred-classroom

Participants will be able to:

- encourage and motivate learners to take part
- create a safe, cooperative and supportive classroom
- use storytelling, game-based learning and task-based activities to build positive attitudes
- exchange experiences with colleagues
- apply and adapt the ideas in their own professional context

Classroom Management

An organised, safe and engaging classroom, and calmer lessons for you.

For: Teachers at any stage of their career, mentors of new teachers and school leaders.

Your English: English at A2 or above

www.erasmus-croatia.com/courses/classroom-management

Participants will be able to:

- establish classroom rules learners understand and accept
- apply the principles behind instructions, groupings and error correction
- use new ideas for assessment and for measuring progress
- change the roles of learners and teachers in a modern classroom to boost motivation
- apply and adapt the ideas in their own professional context

06 · English for school staff

English for Educators A2–B1

More confident everyday and professional English for school staff.

For: Teachers of any subject, school leaders, administrative and support staff.

Your English: From A2 (elementary) to B1 (intermediate) www.erasmus-croatia.com/courses/english-for-educators-a2-b1

Participants will be able to:

- speak and write with more confidence
- use a wider vocabulary, including the language of school and projects
- use the main grammatical structures more accurately
- communicate more effectively with international colleagues
- grow their professional network

07 · English for school staff

English for Educators B2–C1

Fluent, precise English for staff who already use it every week.

For: Teachers of any subject, school leaders and staff who work in English in international projects.

Your English: B2 or above

www.erasmus-croatia.com/courses/english-for-educators-b2-c1

Participants will be able to:

- speak and write more fluently and precisely
- use a wider range of vocabulary, idiom and colloquial English
- refresh and refine their command of grammar
- communicate effectively in debates, meetings and presentations
- grow their professional network

08 · European project management, Digital transformation

IT Tools in European Project Management

Plan, run and report an Erasmus+ project with the right tools.

For: Erasmus+ coordinators, project managers and team members, and school leaders.

Your English: English at A2 or above; basic computer skills

www.erasmus-croatia.com/courses/it-tools-european-project-management

Participants will be able to:

- use the Beneficiary Module for managing KA1 and KA2 projects
- plan and manage project activities with the Key Action Plus app
- manage tasks of individual team members in Jira
- choose the most suitable communication tool for a project (for example Trello, Telegram or Discord)

AI Agents for School Leaders and Erasmus+ Coordinators

Let AI take on routine paperwork under your control, with a person approving every step that matters.

For: Heads and deputy heads, Erasmus+ coordinators, project managers, administrative staff and managers of adult education organisations. No programming experience is needed.

Your English: English at B1 or above (B2 recommended)

Trainer: Josip Sobin

You bring: A laptop and a paid Claude Pro or ChatGPT Plus account, active during the course week. Please do not bring real learners' or staff data: we work with sample school data that we provide.

www.erasmus-croatia.com/courses/ai-agents-school-leaders

Participants will be able to:

- explain what AI agents are and how they differ from chatbots
- identify the school and project tasks that AI can take over, and those it should not
- set up an AI workflow that reads documents and data and prepares drafts, reports and summaries
- write approval rules that keep a person in charge of anything sent, published or paid for
- use AI in Erasmus+ project work: applications, reporting, dissemination and impact data

Green Standard Schools: Sustainable Business Practices

Sustainability in what you teach and in how your school is run.

For: Teachers of any subject, school leaders and eco-school coordinators.

Your English: English at A2 or above

www.erasmus-croatia.com/courses/green-standard-schools

Participants will be able to:

- understand key environmental concepts
- foster green skills among learners
- guide learners in understanding the causes and consequences of environmental issues
- apply practical knowledge of sustainable living
- explain the principles of sustainability clearly

VR in the Language Classroom

Virtual reality as a place to use a language, not a gadget.

For: Teachers of foreign languages (any language) and language-school managers.

Your English: English at A2 or above

www.erasmus-croatia.com/courses/vr-in-language-teaching

Participants will be able to:

- understand the pedagogical value of VR for language learning
- use and adapt virtual learning environments for different levels and contexts
- design VR-based language tasks
- integrate VR activities into existing curricula and lesson plans
- run collaborative and problem-solving tasks in virtual environments

Critical Thinking and Creativity in the Classroom

Learners who ask good questions and think slowly when it matters.

For: Teachers of any subject, from upper primary to adult education.

Your English: English at A2 or above

www.erasmus-croatia.com/courses/critical-thinking-and-creativity

Participants will be able to:

- spark learners' curiosity and motivate them to ask relevant questions
- help learners develop metacognitive skills
- teach the value of slow, methodical thinking
- shift the focus from evaluating the product to the learning process
- promote empathy, reasoning, respect and responsibility

Erasmus+-fundable structured courses. Since 2025, Erasmus+ allows at most three participants from the same organisation on the same course; colleagues can take different courses in the same week. Each course page has a day-by-day plan and a description you can adapt for your application.
